Lincoln Lager Newsletter June 2005

Editor's Notes: (Chris Vejnovich)

Hello all, I have much news to pass along to you all from the Lincoln Lagers News Pit. We have a busy few months a head of us as summer is now in full swing. Upcomming events include the the annual picnic as well as the State Fair, and another Beer Quest.

The next meeting will again be held at BBQ4U. Mike, the owner of BBQ4U requests that he have a basic head count of how many members will be showing up for the meeting so he can prepare the proper amount of food for the night. I need each one of you to please respond to this newsletter and let me know if you or any of your friends are coming to the meeting so that I can contact Mike with that information. If I receive NO responses or very little responses to this request, I will tell Mike that we plan on having 20-25 people at the meeting. If the club should have a large showing of members and friends at any given meeting that do not respond to this newsletter, and the amount of hungry mouths overwhelms the amount of prepared food. THAT IS NOT MY PROBLEM!! Again, please bring a side dish and $5.00 for the cost of the meat that BBQ4U supplies.

Steve Olsen has volunteered to hold the annual Lincoln Lagers Picnic at his house this year. The picnic will be held August 6th, 2005. The event will kick off at 2.00PM. Steve has emailed me a word document with all the details and I am forwarding that on to all of you.

August 7th, 2005 is the date of the next Beer Quest event. The beer style chosen this time around is Wheat Beers. As always, you can get tickets from Emyprean.

The state fair is quickly approaching as well. I am sure that this competition is on your minds. Now is the perfect time to get some beers ready for the state contest.

I am awaiting response from Upstream Brewing Co. about the Lincoln Lagers holding a meeting at the Upstream Legacy this October 2005. I would like to schedule the meeting on a Friday or Saturday night so that all can stay at the Upstream as long as they like and not worry about the drive back to Lincoln and having to be up early for work the next morning. I am also working a brwery tour for that meeting, as well as a group purchase of some of Zac's special release beers that will be available around October for this year. Stay tuned for more information.

Anyone interested in GABF? Dave Oenbring and myself have been trying to work out details for a 50 passenger bus. If this is not possible, I would still like to put together a meeing place and time for leaving Nebraska if all decide to car pool and or take their own vehicle. Dave Oenbring and I drove to GABF together last year and met his Uncle Cy in Denver. We had a great time. We even made it up to Fort Collins and toured some breweries for the day. It would be lots of fun if we could include more Lincoln Lagers this year as well. Email me at the club email address if you are interested.

The Lagers have a new website. It is listed under the address www.lincolnlagers.com

Beer styles for next year's inter-club competition have been decided and are as follows:

German Pilsner, Bohemian Pilsner, Classic Am Pilsner

Mild Ale, Sothern & Northern Brown Ale

British IPA, American IPA, Imperial IPA

Wood Aged Beers, and ofcourse BDB
